

COMMUNITY-WIDE 2008 Hebrew Literacy Program

That is the right class for everyone
--- both women and men ---

- FALL SESSION -
Mondays, 7 - 8:30 p.m.
October 6 - December 15
at Hillel Day School
32200 Middlebelt Road, Farmington Hills

"I know the letters and the vowels, but I can't read the prayers."

OFFERING BEGINNING & INTERMEDIATE CLASSES!

Beginner Reading: Those with no previous Hebrew knowledge will learn the letters and vowels and learn to read some of the prayers of the Friday Night Service.

Intermediate Reading: This class is designed for those who have a basic reading knowledge of Hebrew and are now ready to master the prayers of the Shabbat Morning Service.

Intermediate "Plus": This new class will focus on learning the background and history of selected prayers. We will also learn translations and how the prayers fit into the Shabbat Morning Service.

Hebrew Literacy instructors are trained lay persons teaching under the direction of clergy. A materials fee will cover books and all classes:

Cost: $45

"I could read Hebrew once, but I need a refresher course."

For information, call coordinator Don Rudick, (248) 390-5981, fax (877) 408-7864 or email Don at zeedon1@juno.com. Bring the form with you to the October 6 kickoff or mail the form by October 3rd to: Adat Shalom Synagogue, Attn: Men's Club, 29901 Middlebelt, Farmington Hills, MI 48334.

The program is sponsored by Adat Shalom Synagogue, Congregation Beth Ahm, Congregation Beth Shalom, Congregation B'nai Moshe and Congregation Shaarey Zedek

"I read Hebrew slowly, but I can't keep up with the service."
